

MIDLAND PARK PUBLIC SCHOOLS
Midland Park, New Jersey
CURRICULUM

Writing Grade 4

Prepared by:
Traci Audino & Yaris Chase

Superintendent of Schools:
Marie C. Cirasella, Ed.D.

Director of Curriculum, Instruction, & Assessment:
Melissa Quackenbush

Approved by the Midland Park Board of Education on August 15, 2017

GRADE 4 - WRITING CURRICULUM

YEAR-AT-A-GLANCE

Highland Elementary School, Midland Park, NJ

Unit	Goals	Writing Standards Addressed
1. Launching Unit - "Leading An Independent Writing Life"	Writers... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Begin to understand how to lead an independent writing life</li> <li>• Develop a growth mindset toward their writing and learn to celebrate their struggles</li> <li>• Create a Writer's Notebook with purpose and importance</li> <li>• Understand how to be active members of a writing community</li> <li>• Identify who they are as writers and who they want to become</li> </ul>	NJSLSA.W.4.4 - Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development and organization are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. NJSLSA.W.4.5 - With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing. NJSLSA.W.4.10 - Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, metacognition/self-correction and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
2. Short Stories - Picture Books (Narrative Writing)	Writers... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Create characters, settings, and plots to write a descriptive realistic fiction story</li> <li>• Choose and develop a plan for drafting a realistic fiction story</li> <li>• Revisit and revise their realistic fiction picture books by adding descriptions that will help readers comprehend, visualize, and connect to the story being created</li> <li>• Use a self reflecting checklist to assess whether they have included all of the elements of a well-rounded piece of writing</li> <li>• Engage in the editing and publishing processes and choose their own diverse formats to share their story</li> </ul> Lessons: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Character development (ie. appearance, personality, growth)</li> <li>○ Sensory details (ie. setting)</li> <li>○ Descriptive nouns, verbs, adjectives, and</li> </ul>	NJSLSA.W.4.3 - Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using narrative technique, descriptive details, and clear event sequences. NJSLSA.W.4.3.b - Use dialogue and description to develop experiences and events or show the responses of characters to situations. NJSLSA.W.4.3.d - Use concrete words and phrases and sensory details to convey experiences and events precisely. NJSLSA.W.4.4 - Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development and organization are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. NJSLSA.W.4.5 - With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing. NJSLSA.W.4.6 - With some guidance and support from adults, use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing as well as to interact and collaborate with others.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>adverbs</li> <li>o Figurative language</li> <li>o Dialogue formatting and tag variation</li> <li>o Tone of voice to convey specific moods and characters' perspectives</li> <li>o Theme</li> </ul>
3. Articles (Informational Writing)	Writers... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Identify article components and structures using journalistic terms             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>o Headline</li> <li>o Byline</li> <li>o Facts</li> <li>o Tone (Bias)</li> </ul> </li> <li>● Generate ideas as to what the article is about</li> <li>● Research the article's topic, gathering information and evidence from sources, such as interviews, texts, and videos</li> <li>● Write articles based on evidence collected from sources</li> <li>● Revise articles by adding text features, such as headlines, bylines, pictures, and captions</li> <li>● Publish articles through a digital median of choice</li> </ul>	NJSLSA.W.4.2 - Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas and information clearly. NJSLSA.W.4.2.a - Introduce a topic clearly and group related information in paragraphs and sections; include formatting (e.g., headings), illustrations, and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension. NJSLSA.W.4.2.b - Develop the topic with facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples related to the topic. NJSLSA.W.4.2.c - Link ideas within categories of information using words and phrases (e.g., another, for example, also, because). NJSLSA.W.4.2.d - Use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic. NJSLSA.W.4.5 - With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing. NJSLSA.W.4.6 - With some guidance and support from adults, use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing (using the keyboard) as well as to interact and collaborate with others. NJSLSA.W.4.7 - Conduct short research projects that build knowledge through investigation of different aspects of a topic. NJSLSA.W.4.9 - Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.

		NJSLSA.W.4.10 - Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, metacognition/self-correction and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
4. Literary Essay (1 text; argumentative)	Writers... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Decide if their essay is going to prove a theme/ bigger truth about life or if it will focus on a character's development over time</li> <li>● Plan their writing through organizing its structure in a format of their choice</li> <li>● Develop a clear thesis or claim for their literary essays by writing an opening/introduction that sets the reader up</li> <li>● Develop multiple paragraphs thinking of reasons that support their thesis or claim</li> <li>● Craft a closing that summarizes and extends their claim</li> <li>● Edit essays by connecting their ideas and expand their writing</li> </ul>	NJSLSA.W.4.1 - Write opinion pieces on topics or texts, supporting a point of view with reasons and information. NJSLSA.W.4.1.a - Introduce a topic or text clearly, state an opinion, and create an organizational structure in which related ideas are grouped to support the writer's purpose. NJSLSA.W.4.1.b - Provide reasons that are supported by facts and details. NJSLSA.W.4.1.c - Link opinion and reasons using words and phrases (e.g., for instance, in order to, in addition). NJSLSA.W.4.1.d - Provide a concluding statement or section related to the opinion presented. NJSLSA.W.4.5 - With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing. NJSLSA.W.4.6 - With some guidance and support from adults, use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing (using the keyboard) as well as to interact and collaborate with others. NJSLSA.W.4.10 - Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, metacognition/self-correction and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
5. Fiction-Perspective Short Stories (Narrative)	Writers... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Plan characters (ie. protagonists and antagonists) and the two different perspectives on an</li> </ul>	NJSLSA.W.4.3 - Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using narrative technique, descriptive details, and clear event sequences.

Writing)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• event</li> <li>• Choose and develop a plan for drafting two different perspectives that address the development of a problem</li> <li>• Revisit and revise their stories by adding descriptions that will help readers comprehend, visualize, and connect/empathize with the characters</li> <li>• Engage in the editing and publishing processes and choose their own diverse formats to share their story</li> </ul>	NJSLSA.W.4.3.b - Use dialogue and description to develop experiences and events or show the responses of characters to situations. NJSLSA.W.4.3.d - Use concrete words and phrases and sensory details to convey experiences and events precisely. NJSLSA.W.4.4 - Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development and organization are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. NJSLSA.W.4.5 - With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing. NJSLSA.W.4.6 - With some guidance and support from adults, use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing as well as to interact and collaborate with others.
6. Advertisement (Opinion)	Writers... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Identify key components of advertisements and the ways in which they are presented <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◦ Different appeals (ie. celebrity endorsements, emotional appeal, slogans, bandwagon effect, visuals, etc.)</li> </ul> </li> <li>• Generate ideas of subjects and formats for advertisements</li> <li>• Formulate a claim and evidence that supports their "product"</li> <li>• Plan a technique that will be utilized to create a successful advertisement that supports their claim</li> <li>• Draft the layout of the advertisement, considering their audience and visual appeal/goal</li> <li>• Revise by enhancing advertisement components based on the message they are trying to convey</li> <li>• Publish or present</li> </ul>	NJSLSA.W.4.1 - Write opinion pieces on topics or texts, supporting a point of view with reasons and information. NJSLSA.W.4.1.a - Introduce a topic or text clearly, state an opinion, and create an organizational structure in which related ideas are grouped to support the writer's purpose. NJSLSA.W.4.1.b - Provide reasons that are supported by facts from texts and/or other sources. NJSLSA.W.4.1.c - Link opinion and reasons using words and phrases (e.g., for instance, in order to, in addition). NJSLSA.W.4.5 - With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing. NJSLSA.W.4.6 - With some guidance and support from adults, use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing

	advertisements through a median of choice	(using the keyboard) as well as to interact and collaborate with others. NJSLSA.W.4.8 - Recall relevant information from experiences or gather information from print and digital sources; take notes and categorize information, and provide a list of sources. NJSLSA.W.4.9 - Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. NJSLSA.W.4.10 - Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, metacognition/self-correction and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
--	--	--

Unit 1 Overview
Content Area: ELA
Unit Title: Launching Unit - "Leading an Independent Writing Life"
Grade Level: 4
Unit Summary: In this launching unit, writers will develop their writing identity by reflecting on their most-productive writing processes, environments, and communities. This will assist them in understanding their role as an independent writer, setting goals for improvement. Writers will also develop this identity through personalizing and organizing a writer's notebook. All of the aforementioned will give writers some perspective on how to lead an independent writing life. This should only last about two weeks since this is a mini unit.
Interdisciplinary Connections:
21st Century Themes and Skills:
CRP1. Act as a responsible and contributing citizen and employee.
CRP2. Apply appropriate academic and technical skills.
CRP5. Consider the environmental, social, and economic impacts of decisions.
CRP8. Utilize critical thinking to make sense of problems and persevere in solving them.
CRP10. Plan education and career paths aligned to personal goals.
Standards (Content and Technology):	Learning Targets
CPI#:	Statement:
NJSLSA.W.4.4.	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development and organization are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
NJSLSA.W.4.5	With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing.
NJSLSA.W.4.10	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, metacognition/self-correction and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
NJSLSA.SL.4.1.	Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 4 topics and texts, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly.
Unit Essential Question(s):	Unit Enduring Understandings:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>How do we lead an independent writing life?</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Writers recognize successes and set goals for improvement in order to celebrate the process rather than focusing on their destination.</li> </ul>		Unit Learning Targets/Objectives: Students will... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Differentiate between being an independent writer and writing independently</li> <li>Develop a growth mindset toward their writing and learn to celebrate their struggles</li> <li>Create a writer's notebook with purpose and intention</li> <li>Understand how to be active members of a writing community</li> <li>Identify who they are as writers and who they want to become</li> </ul> Evidence of Learning Formative Assessments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-conferences with writers</li> <li>-examining student notebook entries and letter drafts</li> <li>-review of student checklists, graphic organizers, etc.</li> <li>-participation</li> <li>-observations</li> <li>-peer and self assessment</li> </ul> Summative/Benchmark Assessment(s): Modifications: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Special Education Students <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>At-Risk Students <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Provide extended time to complete tasks</li> </ul> </li> </ul> </li> </ul>
---	--	--	---

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Allow extended time to answer questions, and permit drawing, as an explanation</li> <li>○ Accept participation at any level, even one word</li> <li>○ Consult with Case Managers and follow IEP accommodations/modifications</li> <li>● English Language Learners           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Assign a buddy, same language or English speaking</li> <li>○ Allow errors in speaking</li> <li>○ Rephrase questions, directions, and explanations</li> <li>○ Allow extended time to answer questions</li> <li>○ Accept participation at any level, even one word</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	<table border="1" style="width: 100%; border-collapse: collapse;"> <thead> <tr> <th style="text-align: center; background-color: black; color: white;">Goals</th><th style="text-align: center; background-color: black; color: white;">Teaching Points</th><th style="text-align: center; background-color: black; color: white;">Lesson Plans</th></tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td style="vertical-align: top;"> Writers begin to understand how to lead an independent writing life. </td><td style="vertical-align: top;"> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers learn the difference between being an independent writer and writing independently.</li> <li>● Possible teacher dialogue: "Writers, in order for writing workshop to run smoothly, we have to "show up" at each structure with commitment. Today we will talk about the different structures and what our roles are."</li> <li>○ Discuss structures, mini-lesson, conference, independent practice time, partnerships, strategy groups</li> </ul> </td><td style="vertical-align: top;"> Mentor Text (to generate ideas) Possible Anchor Charts and Ideas for Roles within the Structures (Note - These can also be generated along with the class, but below are some ideas to get started): MINI LESSONS Mentor Writer's Role (Teacher Role): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- teach something explicitly in 8-12 minutes</li> <li>- model the strategy in our own writer's notebook (I wouldn't expect you to do anything I wouldn't do myself!)</li> <li>- provide time for your to try out/experiment with the strategy</li> <li>- space/time to follow up and ask any questions</li> <li>- time to set intentions for your writing time</li> </ul> Student Role: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- actively listening and imagining themselves using the strategy/skill in their own writing</li> </ul> </td></tr> </tbody> </table>	Goals	Teaching Points	Lesson Plans	Writers begin to understand how to lead an independent writing life.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers learn the difference between being an independent writer and writing independently.</li> <li>● Possible teacher dialogue: "Writers, in order for writing workshop to run smoothly, we have to "show up" at each structure with commitment. Today we will talk about the different structures and what our roles are."</li> <li>○ Discuss structures, mini-lesson, conference, independent practice time, partnerships, strategy groups</li> </ul>	Mentor Text (to generate ideas) Possible Anchor Charts and Ideas for Roles within the Structures (Note - These can also be generated along with the class, but below are some ideas to get started): MINI LESSONS Mentor Writer's Role (Teacher Role): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- teach something explicitly in 8-12 minutes</li> <li>- model the strategy in our own writer's notebook (I wouldn't expect you to do anything I wouldn't do myself!)</li> <li>- provide time for your to try out/experiment with the strategy</li> <li>- space/time to follow up and ask any questions</li> <li>- time to set intentions for your writing time</li> </ul> Student Role: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- actively listening and imagining themselves using the strategy/skill in their own writing</li> </ul>
Goals	Teaching Points	Lesson Plans
Writers begin to understand how to lead an independent writing life.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers learn the difference between being an independent writer and writing independently.</li> <li>● Possible teacher dialogue: "Writers, in order for writing workshop to run smoothly, we have to "show up" at each structure with commitment. Today we will talk about the different structures and what our roles are."</li> <li>○ Discuss structures, mini-lesson, conference, independent practice time, partnerships, strategy groups</li> </ul>	Mentor Text (to generate ideas) Possible Anchor Charts and Ideas for Roles within the Structures (Note - These can also be generated along with the class, but below are some ideas to get started): MINI LESSONS Mentor Writer's Role (Teacher Role): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- teach something explicitly in 8-12 minutes</li> <li>- model the strategy in our own writer's notebook (I wouldn't expect you to do anything I wouldn't do myself!)</li> <li>- provide time for your to try out/experiment with the strategy</li> <li>- space/time to follow up and ask any questions</li> <li>- time to set intentions for your writing time</li> </ul> Student Role: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- actively listening and imagining themselves using the strategy/skill in their own writing</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- come to the meeting area with necessary tools (writer's notebook, pen/pencil, writing folder)</li> <li>- move efficiently to your spot next to your partner so to get going right away</li> <li>- willingness and open mindedness to let in the new learning</li> <li>- during turn and talks really committed to trying out and discussing the strategy/skill (stay focused!)</li> </ul> CONFERENCES Mentor Writer's Role (Teacher Role): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- ask questions to better understand how the writer's writing is going</li> <li>- provide possible next steps the writer might try</li> <li>- promise to listen with a curious mind</li> <li>- following your lead and providing your individual next steps that grows from the conversation</li> <li>- we aren't there to correct; we are there to both grow as writers (I promise to teach you something as a writer, and I hope you will be open to teaching me too!)</li> <li>- conversation writer to writer not teacher to student</li> <li>- sharing our own writing struggles/vulnerabilities with the community</li> </ul> Student Role: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- share their thinking about their writing and explaining what they are trying out</li> <li>- think about how the strategy might play out in their own writing; willingness to take a risk</li> <li>- share goals/strategies they have been trying out</li> <li>- be open to share struggles/challenges and how you are working through them</li> <li>- share changes and try out new ways to rewrite parts of your writing when making choices</li> </ul>	INDEPENDENT PRACTICE
--	---	-----------------------------

	Mentor Writer: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- meet individually and in strategy groups to talk about your writing</li> <li>- maximize independence practice time by keeping mini-lesson “mini”</li> <li>- meet with each writer at least 1 or 2 times across the week</li> </ul> Students Role: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- writing the entire time</li> <li>- using strategies taught that day or others from before to help move their writing forward</li> <li>- get unstuck without going to the mentor writer (teacher) first</li> <li>- briefly check in with your writing partner share what is getting in your way and if they have suggestions</li> <li>- make a choice to get unstuck: look at a mentor text/writer’s notebook, suggestions, model, shared writing in the room, student sample</li> </ul>	Anchor Chart: Possible Solutions When we Get Stuck (add to this chart) Possible Ways to Celebrate Struggles <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- sharing author visits and their experiences along their writing journey (rejections, drafts, letters, etc)</li> <li>- share a mentor text with the class that celebrates the beauty of “messing up!” Ex: Ralph Writes a Story by Abby Hanlon, What To Do With a Problem by Kobi Yamada, The Most Magnificent Thing by Ashley Spires</li> <li>- risks that you take in your life outside of the classroom and why those risks are worth it</li> </ul> • Possible teacher dialogue: “Writers, we are bound to come across struggles and challenges along the way. We might even experience writer’s block, but it is our job to work through that by making choice. Let’s think about reasons why we might get stuck and share ideas about how to get unstuck.” (Generate reasons why we get stuck and possible solutions: collectively share these and create a “Getting Unstuck Guide!” that can help us throughout the year.) • Possible teacher dialogue: “Writers, today we are going to look at some of our struggles we have faced in the past and
	Writers develop a growth mindset toward their writing and learn to celebrate their struggles.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Possible teacher dialogue: “Writers, we are bound to come across struggles and challenges along the way. We might even experience writer’s block, but it is our job to work through that by making choice. Let’s think about reasons why we might get stuck and share ideas about how to get unstuck.” (Generate reasons why we get stuck and possible solutions: collectively share these and create a “Getting Unstuck Guide!” that can help us throughout the year.)</li> <li>• Possible teacher dialogue: “Writers, today we are going to look at some of our struggles we have faced in the past and</li> </ul>

	celebrate those by thinking about what we can learn from them. Some struggles I have as a writer are.... Why these are helpful for me are.... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Possible teacher dialogue: "Writers, great writing takes time! Today, let's share what had worked for you in the past and what got in your way? How can we live differently this year?"</li> </ul>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Possible teacher dialogue: "As writers we want to 'house' all of our thinking, and we need one place to do that work. This year our notebook is going to be our tool for all of our ideas, drafts, strategies, and reflections. To make the notebook uniquely your own we are going to spend some time personalizing them. I am also going to create one, too!"</li> <li>2. Possible teacher dialogue: "Writers, now that we have personalized our notebooks it is time for us to think about what could go inside. Turn and talk to your writing partner, 'What might we include in a writer's notebook?'"</li> <li>3. Generate a list with writers and begin to think about:           <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Mini lessons/Strategies/Mentor Writers</li> <li>b. Ideas &amp; Drafts</li> <li>c. Reflection/Goals/Conferences</li> </ol> </li> <li>4. Create the sections together and model for them what that could look like.</li> <li>5. Possible teacher dialogue: "Tonight, think about how this notebook is going to matter to you. How might it help you grow as a writer in 4th grade?"</li> <li>6. Possible student dialogue/reflection: "In the past, my writer's notebook looked like.... This year, I want my notebook to look more like..."</li> </ol>
	Writers create a Writer's Notebook with purpose and importance. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Writers will personalize a writing notebook to develop ownership and pride in their future work.           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ After decorating their notebook, students can share their personal writer's notebook with others to develop a sense of identity with others.</li> </ul> </li> <li>• Writers create sections in their writing notebook:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Have a class discussion generating ideas as to what sections should be in our notebook.</li> <li>○ Create a list of the ideas and develop section headings.               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ Possible Sections: Mini Lessons/ Strategies, Ideas and Drafts, Reflections/Goals/ Conferences/Admiring Language</li> </ul> </li> <li>○ Students set up their notebooks containing the sections that was decided upon.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers determine the importance of the Writer's Notebook:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Have a class discussion setting a purpose/goal for these notebooks.</li> </ul> </li> <li>■ Students will turn to the "Reflective/Goal" section of their notebooks to record the goal they will attain. This can be referenced and added to throughout the year.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers help design the writing space and take ownership of that environment.</li> <li>● Writers learn and discuss the expectations for key vocabulary: writing conference, partnership, peer review, etc.</li> <li>● Writers write a letter to their potential partners expressing what they can bring to a writing partner and what they need.</li> <li>● Writers learn and discuss how to build a trusting writing partnership through potential problems and solutions.</li> <li>● Writers will learn how to conduct a productive peer review, giving feedback and using a critical yet objective eye when reviewing a partner's writing piece.</li> <li>● Writers conference with their writing partners, read the writing piece, and provide feedback to their writing partners, positively and constructively encouraging their peers by identifying specific areas of strengths and improvement.</li> </ul>	<table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>Problems We May Face</th><th>WRITER'S WORKSHOP</th><th>Ways We Can Solve Problems</th></tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Getting started takes too long!</li> </ul> </td><td></td><td> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Assigned spots</li> <li>● Hip to hip with your writing partner</li> <li>● Grab Writer's Notebooks and go right to the rug</li> <li>● Rank ideas in order of importance</li> </ul> </td></tr> <tr> <td> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● We don't know how</li> </ul> </td><td></td><td> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Learn our partners</li> </ul> </td></tr> </tbody> </table>	Problems We May Face	WRITER'S WORKSHOP	Ways We Can Solve Problems	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Getting started takes too long!</li> </ul>		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Assigned spots</li> <li>● Hip to hip with your writing partner</li> <li>● Grab Writer's Notebooks and go right to the rug</li> <li>● Rank ideas in order of importance</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● We don't know how</li> </ul>		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Learn our partners</li> </ul>
Problems We May Face	WRITER'S WORKSHOP	Ways We Can Solve Problems
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Getting started takes too long!</li> </ul>		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Assigned spots</li> <li>● Hip to hip with your writing partner</li> <li>● Grab Writer's Notebooks and go right to the rug</li> <li>● Rank ideas in order of importance</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● We don't know how</li> </ul>		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Learn our partners</li> </ul>

to be a helpful partner.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• strengths/struggles</li> <li>• Show them a strategy that worked for you in your writing</li> <li>• Refer to mentor text to help get ideas</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Off task behavior that's distracting to the writing community</li> <li>• Worried too much about others and not ourselves</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Reflection piece</li> <li>• Ask questions: “What did you do today as a writer?”, “What do you still want to work on in your story?”, etc.</li> <li>• Invest in one another’s “writing life” but not their individual choices</li> <li>• We are closed off to our partner’s suggestions and don’t use their ideas constructively.</li> </ul>
			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Keep in mind that it's for the improvement of the writing piece and helps our development as a writer. Think positively!</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• No writing at all</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Highlight pages with similar content</li> <li>• Look at previous entries</li> <li>• Pull a book in the genre to spark inspiration</li> </ul>
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Provide peer review language (words and phrases) to use for a productive discussion:  https://docs.google.com/a/mpopanthers.org/document/d/1BFBTa49SRE4ls2M3cy8qujXCC7XWoP4lx3ZhhWxutHTo/edit?usp=sharing</li> <li>• Teacher may model “looking with a critical eye” with a sample writing piece.</li> </ul>
Writers will identify who they are as writers and who they want to become.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Writers identify their struggles, strengths, and a way to stretch themselves, they may write about it but can also come up with a visual with images/icons that represent/symbolize their thoughts.</li> <li>• Writers consider and evaluate environments in which they are productive writers, such as tools, and determine the things they need for their best writing environment.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• When writers identify their struggles, strengths, and a way to stretch themselves, they may write about it but can also come up with a visual with images/icons that represent/symbolize their thoughts.</li> <li>• Risk Taking Continuum: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• https://docs.google.com/document/d/1hgq9eSyMSZ3O1xpIVbHO18DRf_1k2PuVd-P0alBRGogPc/edit</li> <li>• Consider having the writers help design the writing environment by asking for their input.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>

Unit 2 Overview

Content Area: ELA- Writing

Unit Title: Picture Books (Realistic Fiction)

Grade Level: 4

Unit Summary: In this unit, writers will explore the elements and structures of creative writing through the genre of realistic fiction. The unit activities and products are designed to give students of multiple intelligences the opportunity to express/share their knowledge and expertise (ie. linguistically, visually, intrapersonally, interpersonally, spatially). Creative writing is also a strong way for writers to develop the capacity to use their own minds/prior knowledge as the foundation for idea development. In addition, they can expand their minds and learn to think “outside of the box.”

Interdisciplinary Connections: ELA-Reading & Art

21st Century Themes and Skills: Creativity and Innovation, Communication and Collaboration

- CRP2. Apply appropriate academic and technical skills.
- CRP4. Communicate clearly and effectively and with reason.
- CRP6. Demonstrate creativity and innovation.

Standards (Content and Technology):		Learning Targets
CPI#:	Statement:
NJSLSA.W.4.3	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using narrative technique, descriptive details, and clear event sequences.
NJSLSA.W.4.3.b	Use dialogue and description to develop experiences and events or show the responses of characters to situations.
NJSLSA.W.4.3.d	Use concrete words and phrases and sensory details to convey experiences and events precisely.
NJSLSA.W.4.4	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development and organization are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
NJSLSA.W.4.5	With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing.
NJSLSA.W.4.6	With some guidance and support from adults, use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing as well as to interact and collaborate with others.
NJSLSA.L.4.2	Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.
NJSLSA.L.4.1.d	Order adjectives within sentences according to conventional patterns (e.g., a small red bag rather than a red small

	bag).
NJSLA.L.4.1.e	Form and use prepositional phrases.
NJSLA.L.4.1.g	Correctly use frequently confused words (e.g., to, too, two; there, their ).
NJSLA.L.4.2.a	Use correct capitalization.
NJSLA.L.4.2.b	Use commas and quotation marks to mark direct speech and quotations from a text.
NJSLA.L.4.3.a	Choose words and phrases to convey ideas precisely.
NJSLA.L.4.3.b	Choose punctuation for effect.
8.15.A.1	Select and use the appropriate digital tools and resources to accomplish a variety of tasks including solving problems
8.15.A.2	Format a document using a word processing application to enhance text and include graphics, symbols and/ or pictures.
Unit Essential Question(s):		Unit Enduring Understandings:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How do writers develop a believable realistic fiction story using the writing process?</li> <li>• What makes a story unforgettable?</li> </ul>		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Writers use specific strategies to plan, write, and revise realistic stories.</li> <li>• Writers interrelate all of the creative elements and techniques to develop a cohesive storyline that unfolds the heart of the story.</li> </ul>
Unit Learning Targets/Objectives:
Students will...
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Create characters, settings, and plots to write a descriptive realistic fiction story</li> <li>• Choose and develop a plan for drafting a realistic fiction story</li> <li>• Revise their realistic fiction picture books</li> <li>• Utilize a checklist to assess their writing</li> <li>• Edit and publish their stories</li> <li>• Share their published stories</li> </ul>

Evidence of Learning

Formative Assessments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-conferences with writers</li> <li>-examining student notebook entries and drafts</li> <li>-review of student checklists, graphic organizers, etc.</li> <li>-participation</li> <li>-observations</li> <li>-peer and self assessment</li> </ul> Summative/Benchmark Assessment(s):	Modifications: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Special Education Students             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Allow errors</li> <li>○ Rephrase questions, directions, and explanations</li> <li>○ Allow extended time to answer questions, and permit drawing, as an explanation</li> <li>○ Accept participation at any level, even one word</li> <li>○ Consult with Case Managers and follow IEP accommodations/modifications</li> </ul> </li> <li>• English Language Learners             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Assign a buddy, same language or English speaking</li> <li>○ Allow errors in speaking</li> <li>○ Rephrase questions, directions, and explanations</li> <li>○ Allow extended time to answer questions</li> <li>○ Accept participation at any level, even one word</li> </ul> </li> <li>• At-Risk Students             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Provide extended time to complete tasks</li> <li>○ Consult with Guidance Counselors and follow I&amp;RS procedures/action plans</li> <li>○ Consult with classroom teacher(s) for specific behavior interventions</li> <li>○ Provide rewards as necessary</li> </ul> </li> <li>• Gifted and Talented Students             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Provide extension activities</li> <li>○ Build on students' intrinsic motivations</li> <li>○ Consult with parents to accommodate students' interests in completing tasks at their level of engagement</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	Lesson Plans <table border="1" style="width: 100%; border-collapse: collapse;"> <thead> <tr> <th style="text-align: left; padding: 5px;">Unit Goals</th><th style="text-align: left; padding: 5px;">Suggested Teaching Points:</th><th style="text-align: left; padding: 5px;">Teacher Ideas/Tips</th></tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td style="padding: 5px;">Writers create characters, settings, and plots to write a descriptive realistic</td><td style="padding: 5px;"> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers look closely at the qualities and elements of a story noticing what mentor authors do.</li> <li>● Writers generate multiple ideas for their process.</li> </ul> </td><td style="padding: 5px;">           Process: Generate Ideas, Collect Entries           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Have an anchor chart displayed showing the writing process.</li> </ul> </td></tr> </tbody> </table>	Unit Goals	Suggested Teaching Points:	Teacher Ideas/Tips	Writers create characters, settings, and plots to write a descriptive realistic	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers look closely at the qualities and elements of a story noticing what mentor authors do.</li> <li>● Writers generate multiple ideas for their process.</li> </ul>	Process: Generate Ideas, Collect Entries <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Have an anchor chart displayed showing the writing process.</li> </ul>
Unit Goals	Suggested Teaching Points:	Teacher Ideas/Tips
Writers create characters, settings, and plots to write a descriptive realistic	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers look closely at the qualities and elements of a story noticing what mentor authors do.</li> <li>● Writers generate multiple ideas for their process.</li> </ul>	Process: Generate Ideas, Collect Entries <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Have an anchor chart displayed showing the writing process.</li> </ul>

fiction story	stories: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Think of a person and times with that person</li> <li>○ Special moments and why they mattered to us or someone else</li> <li>○ Special objects and times with those objects</li> <li>○ Strong feelings and times we or someone else felt those strong emotions</li> <li>○ Thinking about important First Times &amp; Last Times and writing about those special moments</li> <li>● Writers look closely at their possible writing topics and circle or star one that speaks to them. We choose a story that is meaningful and one we want to share with others and we begin writing our drafts in our notebooks.</li> <li>● Writers have different ways in developing who the characters are as people:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Describe what the characters look like</li> <li>○ Through action, thought, dialogue, and feelings writers can develop their characters intentionally</li> <li>○ Create moments that require the reader to interpret or infer the emotions/feelings of the characters</li> <li>● Writers consider the impact of setting on a story, including the mood and character emotions.</li> <li>● Writers develop a setting in their story to help readers visualize:</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writing Process Flocabulary Video: https://www.flocabulary.com/unit/writing-process/lyric-notes/</li> <li>● You can make a chart with the class that looks at qualities of writing in mentor texts such as...</li> </ul> <table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>What We Notice</th><th>Examples</th><th>Why a Writer Chooses This</th></tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>pictures do not exactly match words</td><td>insert example here</td><td>when the writer wants to show something and help readers picture exactly what it looks like</td></tr> <tr> <td>colors change in the pictures</td><td>insert example here</td><td>when the writer wants to show the mood and tone of that part</td></tr> </tbody> </table> *This chart can be created over several days and across more than one picture book. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Make sure to use your own writing notebook to model these strategies for students.</li> <li>● Refer back to mentor texts when teaching these developing strategies. Some possible mentor texts include:       <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ The Girl Who Never Made Mistakes by Mark Pett and Gary Rubinstein</li> <li>○ Family Huddle by Eli Manning, Peyton Manning, and Archie Manning</li> <li>○ Extra Yarn by Mac Barnett</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	What We Notice	Examples	Why a Writer Chooses This	pictures do not exactly match words	insert example here	when the writer wants to show something and help readers picture exactly what it looks like	colors change in the pictures	insert example here	when the writer wants to show the mood and tone of that part
What We Notice	Examples	Why a Writer Chooses This
pictures do not exactly match words	insert example here	when the writer wants to show something and help readers picture exactly what it looks like colors change in the pictures	insert example here	when the writer wants to show the mood and tone of that part

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Utilize descriptive and sensory details to develop their setting</li> <li>○ Apply figurative language to enrich their writing pieces</li> <li>● Writers construct a plot structure:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Writers create, build, and resolve a conflict (problem)</li> <li>○ Create an ending that ties back to the beginning of the story somehow               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ A sound that is heard in the beginning of the story is heard again at the end</li> <li>■ A feeling that is felt in the beginning of the story is felt again or has developed/changed</li> <li>■ Character growth</li> <li>○ Create an ending that ties back to the beginning of the story somehow</li> </ul> </li> <li>● Writers consider a theme for their realistic picture books and whether it will be stated or inferred in their story.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ The Old Woman Who Named Things by Cynthia Rylant</li> <li>○ Song and Dance Man by Karen Ackerman</li> </ul>
Writers choose and develop a plan for drafting a realistic fiction story	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers collect entries and create multiple drafts of their stories:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Reread entries and decide on a plot, setting, and characters for one picture book</li> <li>○ Make a plot mountain for the ONE story that will be drafted and make sure its scope can be written in one short picture book</li> <li>○ Create a drafting booklet (box for picture and lines for words) to match the number of scenes or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	Process: Choosing and Making a Plan <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Make sure to use your own writing from previous years to model these strategies for students or have students' examples to show and display</li> <li>● Encourage writers to really choose which settings, plot, and characters they want to go together for the draft</li> <li>● Sketch would be concise ideas for what they will put in the final book</li> </ul>

	pages in the book
Writers revisit and revise their realistic fiction picture books by adding descriptions that will help readers comprehend, visualize, and connect to the story being created	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Writers revise (re-vision) a significant event or moment in their story to enhance their storyline.</li> <li>• Writers make entries stronger by using available resources: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◦ Teacher conference, writing partnerships, writing checklists, anchor charts, reference sheets</li> <li>◦ Character development (ie. appearance, personality, growth)</li> <li>◦ Sensory details (ie. setting)</li> <li>◦ Descriptive nouns, verbs, adjectives, and adverbs</li> <li>◦ Figurative language</li> <li>◦ Dialogue formatting and tag variation</li> <li>◦ Tone of voice to convey specific moods and characters' perspectives</li> <li>◦ Theme</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	Process: Revision <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Consider accessing sources, such as books, short videos, and interviews, where well-known authors discuss their own personal experiences with the writing process.</li> <li>• The following are resources that should be made accessible to students in some way when they are revising their work. Other resources can be found as well.</li> </ul> Character Traits: https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B2QOVukOKY3LdEdBVGliemO5RFU/view?usp=sharing Sensory Words: https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B2QOVukOKY3LRVBT0ZuMilmNEO/view?usp=sharing Adjective List: https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B2QOVukOKY3LM2ZX$2NjWTM2LXc/view?usp=sharing Verb List: https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B2QOVukOKY3LZnFLQVRiek5qSjA/view?usp=sharing Adverb List: https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B2QOVukOKY3LWUpjhM1NCamtOdG8/view?usp=sharing Crafting Pictures: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Showing mood/tone through the illustration's colors or characters' facial expressions/body language</li> <li>• Foreshadowing in a picture <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◦ Using speech or thought bubbles</li> <li>◦ Deciding the type of pictures that will be used to show the style of the Realistic Picture Book <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◦ Drawings</li> </ul> </li> </ul> </li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Cartoon/Clip Art</li> <li>○ Paintings</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers choose 2-3 items on the checklist to focus on per day.</li> <li>● Writers color code, highlight, and then annotate each item on the checklist to hold them accountable for where they have included that element directly in their writing:</li> <li>○ Writers collaborate with their writing partners to review the accuracy of their color-coding and then use those suggestions for later reflection and application</li> <li>○ Writers revise their piece, applying what was discovered from their color-coding and peer review</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Use a personal piece of writing or a student sample from a previous year to model how to use a checklist.</li> <li>● Conference with struggling writers to review the checklist and process for using it.</li> <li>● Programs that support effective and organized color-coding and annotating work:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Microsoft Word - Use the "Review" feature.</li> <li>○ Google Docs - Use text highlighting and the "Comments" feature.</li> </ul> </li> <li>● See video pertaining to Standard: W.4.3a "Organize the story so that the plot begins naturally": https://learnzillion.com/resources/57245-writealong-for-4th-grade</li> </ul>
	Writers go through the editing and publishing process and choose their own diverse formats to share their story	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers edit their stories:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Spelling, Grammar, Punctuation</li> <li>○ Word Choice</li> </ul> </li> <li>● Writers publish their stories in a format that is appropriate for them:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Plan what format they will choose and the materials they will need</li> <li>○ Writers implement their plans by following each step needed to complete their published stories</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	Process: Editing and Publishing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Use a "Text-to-Speech" extension to help writers listen to their stories and make corrections</li> <li>● Publishing Ideas:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Possibly Snag it <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Realistic Picture Books written on paper</li> <li>○ Picture Books written on paper and developed into a slideshow</li> <li>○ Digital Picture Books typed on the computer</li> </ul> </li> </ul> </li> </ul>

Unit 3 Overview

Content Area: ELA - Writing

Unit Title: Articles (Informational Writing)

Grade Level: 4

Unit Summary: In this unit, writers will explore the elements and structures of informational writing through composing articles. The unit activities and products are designed to foster the writers' use of evidence-based information to create an informed perspective on a topic. In addition, the writers' research of both print and digital primary and secondary sources will also help them learn how to evaluate the credibility of information presented. When writers need to assess others' work, they can later apply the same evaluative "eyes" to their work. Finally, the writing products of this unit will support the writers' motivation through differentiation by interest, as students get to choose a topic of choice.

Interdisciplinary Connections: ELA, Science, & Social Studies

21st Century Themes and Skills: Communication and Collaboration, Information Literacy, Communication Literacy

- CRP2. Apply appropriate academic and technical skills.
- CRP4. Communicate clearly and effectively and with reason.
- CRP7. Employ valid and reliable research strategies.
- CRP11. Use technology to enhance productivity.

NJ Learning Standards		Learning Targets
CPI#:	Statement:
NJSLSA.RI.4.5	Describe the overall structure of events, ideas, concepts, or information (e.g., chronology, comparison, cause/effect) in a text or part of a text.
NJSLSA.RI.4.7	Interpret factual information presented graphically or visually (e.g., in charts, graphs, diagrams, time lines, animations, or interactive elements on Web pages) and explain how the information contributes to understanding the text in which they appear.
NJSLSA.RI.4.8	Explain how an author uses reasons and evidence to support particular points in a text.
NJSLSA.W.4.2	Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas and information clearly.
NJSLSA.W.4.2.A	Introduce a topic clearly and group related information in paragraphs and sections; include formatting (e.g., headings), illustrations, and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.
NJSLSA.W.4.2.B	Develop the topic with facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples related to the topic
NJSLSA.W.4.2.C	Link ideas within categories of information using words and phrases (e.g., another, for example, also, because ).
NJSLSA.W.4.2.D	Use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic.
NJSLSA.W.4.5	With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing.
NJSLSA.W.4.6	With some guidance and support from adults, use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing (using the keyboard) as well as to interact and collaborate with others.

NJSLSA.W.4.7	Conduct short research projects that build knowledge through investigation of different aspects of a topic.
NJSLSA.W.4.9	Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.
NJSLSA.W.4.10	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, metacognition/self-correction and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
NJSLSA.L.4.6.	Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases, including those that signal precise actions, emotions, or states of being (e.g., quizzed, whined, stammered) and that are basic to a particular topic (e.g., wildlife, conservation , and endangered when discussing animal preservation).
NJSLSA.L.4.1.A	Use relative pronouns ( who, whose, whom, which, that ) and relative adverbs ( where, when, why ).
NJSLSA.L.4.1.C	Use modal auxiliaries (e.g., can, may, must ) to convey various conditions.
NJSLSA.L.4.1.F	Produce complete sentences, recognizing and correcting inappropriate fragments and run-ons.
8.1.5.A.1	Select and use the appropriate digital tools and resources to accomplish a variety of tasks including solving problems
8.1.5.E.1	Use digital tools to research and evaluate the accuracy of, relevance to, and appropriateness of using print and non-print electronic information sources to complete a variety of tasks.
Unit Essential Question(s):
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How are reporting and researching utilized in composing articles?</li> <li>• How do writers stay authentic to the topic and the information gathered?</li> </ul>
Unit Learning Targets/Objectives:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Identify components and structures that make up an informational article</li> <li>• Generate ideas in order to collect and gather information</li> <li>• Research an article's topic, gathering information and evidence from multiple sources</li> <li>• Write an article based on the information gathered</li> <li>• Revise articles by adding text and graphic features</li> </ul>
Unit Enduring Understandings:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Writers efficiently gather information from multiple sources and utilize the writing process to effectively communicate their topic.</li> <li>• Writers present only factual information, making sure to eliminate opinions or bias from the article.</li> </ul>

- Publish articles through a digital media source

Evidence of Learning

Formative Assessments:

- conferences with writers
- examining student notebook entries and drafts
- review of student checklists, graphic organizers, etc.
- participation
- observations
- peer and self assessment

Summative/Benchmark Assessment(s):

Modifications:

- Special Education Students
  - Allow errors
  - Rephrase questions, directions, and explanations
  - Allow extended time to answer questions, and permit drawing, as an explanation
  - Accept participation at any level, even one word
  - Consult with Case Managers and follow IEP accommodations/modifications
- At-Risk Students
  - Provide extended time to complete tasks
  - Consult with Guidance Counselors and follow I&RS procedures/action plans
  - Consult with classroom teacher(s) for specific behavior interventions
  - Provide rewards as necessary
- English Language Learners
  - Assign a buddy, same language or English speaking
  - Allow errors in speaking
  - Rephrase questions, directions, and explanations
  - Allow extended time to answer questions
  - Accept participation at any level, even one word
- Gifted and Talented Students
  - Provide extension activities
  - Build on students' intrinsic motivations
  - Consult with parents to accommodate students' interests in completing tasks at their level of engagement

Goals	Suggested Teaching Points	Lesson Plans
		Teaching Ideas and Tips
Identify article components and structures using journalistic terms	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Writers look closely at the written and aesthetic content of mentor texts, identifying, discussing, and comparing observations.</li> <li>• Writers learn about journalistic terms, text and graphic features, structures, and qualities of articles: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Headline</li> <li>○ Byline</li> <li>○ Audience</li> <li>○ Main Idea/Supporting Details (Facts)</li> <li>○ Tone (Angle; Bias; Active Voice)</li> <li>○ Images/Captions</li> <li>○ Who?, What?, Where?, When?, Why?, &amp; How? (5WH Questions)</li> <li>○ “The Lead” - First paragraph between 15-20 words that answers the 5WH questions</li> <li>○ Short sentences</li> <li>○ Quotes</li> </ul> </li> <li>• Vwriters demonstrate and apply knowledge of journalistic components by specifically identifying them in the mentor texts.</li> </ul>	Pre-assessment: Use one class period to assess writers' prior knowledge of article writing. Students can either be presented with a topic or choose a topic to write an article about. Immersion Week: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Students are immersed in the genre by looking at various informational articles</li> <li>- Create a chart of text and graphic features that were shown throughout the articles and discuss the purpose of each. Why might an author choose to include this text or graphic feature to enhance the article?</li> </ul>	<table border="1" style="width: 100%; border-collapse: collapse;"> <thead> <tr> <th style="text-align: center; padding: 5px;">Text and Graphic Features</th> <th style="text-align: center; padding: 5px;">Purpose (How does it help the reader?)</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td style="text-align: center; padding: 5px;">Text/Graphic Features</td> <td style="text-align: center; padding: 5px;">(How does it help the reader?)</td> </tr> <tr> <td style="text-align: center; padding: 5px;">Title</td> <td style="text-align: center; padding: 5px;"></td> </tr> <tr> <td style="text-align: center; padding: 5px;">Headings</td> <td style="text-align: center; padding: 5px;"></td> </tr> <tr> <td style="text-align: center; padding: 5px;">Photographs</td> <td style="text-align: center; padding: 5px;"></td> </tr> <tr> <td style="text-align: center; padding: 5px;">Captions</td> <td style="text-align: center; padding: 5px;"></td> </tr> <tr> <td style="text-align: center; padding: 5px;">Pronunciation</td> <td style="text-align: center; padding: 5px;"></td> </tr> <tr> <td style="text-align: center; padding: 5px;">Glossary</td> <td style="text-align: center; padding: 5px;"></td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	Text and Graphic Features	Purpose (How does it help the reader?)	Text/Graphic Features	(How does it help the reader?)	Title		Headings		Photographs		Captions		Pronunciation		Glossary
Text and Graphic Features	Purpose (How does it help the reader?)
Text/Graphic Features	(How does it help the reader?)
Title
Headings
Photographs
Captions
Pronunciation
Glossary

	Diagrams Maps Bold, Highlighted, and Italic Print	*This chart can be created over several days and across more than one informational text. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Refer back to mentor texts when teaching or modeling these developing strategies. Some possible mentor texts include:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Scholastic News</li> <li>NEWSELA (newsela.com)</li> <li>Collections of local newspapers (digital or print)</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
Generate ideas as to what the article is about	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Writers discuss ways in which a writer may gather and organize information to write an article:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Gather information               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Various credible primary and secondary sources (ie. Internet, television, other articles, interviews, etc.)</li> </ul> </li> </ul> </li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Model how to research a specific topic using appropriate safe databases:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ http://ars.sirs.com/discoverer.html <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>User Id/Login = nj2589 &amp; Password = 07432</li> </ul> </li> <li>➤ http://search.ebscohost.com/ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>User Id/Login = s8692980 &amp; Password = password</li> </ul> </li> <li>➤ http://www.worldbookonline.com/wb/Login?ed=wb&amp;suba_sct=E9615 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>User Id/Login = hilibrary &amp; Password = 07432</li> </ul> </li> </ul> </li> </ul> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Organize information           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Graphic organizers               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Outline</li> <li>Digital logs of interviews</li> <li>Post-its</li> <li>annotations</li> </ul> </li> </ul> </li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Writers discuss topics that inspire and support strong article writing, such as:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Real-life events/ happenings</li> <li>Heart of the article (the significance of it; Why is it so important for others to read?)</li> <li>Writers choose at least 2-3 real-life topics they are either passionate about or want to learn more about.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Refer to sample informational articles from immersion week as needed</li> <li>Some options for safe databases:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>http://ars.sirs.com/discoverer.html</li> <li>User Id/Login = nj2589 &amp; Password = 07432</li> <li>http://search.ebscohost.com/</li> <li>User Id/Login = s8692980 &amp; Password = password</li> <li>http://www.worldbookonline.com/wb/Login?ed=wb&amp;subacct=E9615</li> <li>User Id/Login = hilllibrary &amp; Password = 07432</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Discuss and model how to take their organized information and use it to write productively. For example:</li> </ul>
Research the article's topic, gathering information and evidence from sources, such as interviews, texts, and videos	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Writers explore and research their topics using appropriate, authentic, and credible primary and secondary sources, such as databases.</li> <li>Writers use their research to collect information on their topics.</li> <li>Writers organize collected information in a format of their choice.</li> <li>Writers choose the topic in which they are invested in reporting about for their final article.</li> <li>Writers complete further research to enhance and build their topic, ensuring they have the who, what, where, when, why, and how.</li> </ul>
Write articles based on evidence collected	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Writers draft their article to fully explain their topic.</li> </ul>

from sources <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers share their drafts with teachers and/or peers and receive feedback.</li> <li>● Writers develop and enhance their writing using the feedback that was provided.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Choosing the most inspiring, interesting, appealing, or factual quotes to incorporate</li> <li>○ Beginning the selection with the who, what, where, when, why, and how ("The Lead" of the article)</li> <li>○ Choosing facts, examples, and anecdotes that are most unique, unknown, surprising/shocking, or emphasize the heart of the story</li> <li>● When drafts are completed, have students use a rubric or color-coding checklist to review their own work and/or a peer's work, ensuring they have answered and expanded upon the 5WH questions, and have met some structural requirements, such as paragraph/sentence formatting.</li> <li>● Continually refer back to mentor texts or teacher self-created examples and have students share their work as needed.</li> </ul>
Revise articles by adding text features, such as headlines, bylines, pictures, and captions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers choose and apply some text and graphic features that would enhance or expand on their topic while also organizing the information: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Headings</li> <li>○ Special Print</li> <li>○ Photographs/Captions</li> <li>○ Quotes</li> <li>○ Pronunciation</li> </ul> </li> <li>● Writers share their drafts with teachers and/or peers and receive feedback.</li> <li>● Writers develop/enhance their articles by synthesizing their self-observations and teacher/peer feedback.</li> </ul>
Publish articles through a digital	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers choose a method for publishing their articles.</li> <li>● Publishing Ideas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Google Drawing</li> </ul> </li> </ul>

median of choice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers either choose a template or create their own layout for their article:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Focus on visual appeal and organization.</li> <li>● Writers share their publishing with teachers and/or peers and receive feedback.</li> <li>● Writers develop/enhance their articles by synthesizing the self-observations and teacher/peer feedback received.</li> <li>● Writers finally print their articles.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Microsoft Publisher (Templates)</li> <li>○ Google Docs</li> <li>○ http://www.readwritethink.org/classroom-resources/students-interactive/printing-press-30036.html</li> <li>● Continually refer back to mentor texts or have students share their work as needed.</li> <li>● Possibly bind all of the articles together and create a class newspaper. Share the work with others in the school community (ie. school newspaper, post on teacher webpage, display at Open House, etc.).</li> </ul>
------------------	--	---

Unit 4 Overview

Content Area: ELA - Writing
Unit Title: Literary Essay (Argumentative)
Grade Level: 4

Unit Summary: In this unit, writers will explore the elements and structures of opinion writing through developing a literary essay. The unit activities and products are designed to have writers take their own observations of a story's fictional elements and then build a solid argument using evidence from the story. This will help writers think more critically, accessing inferences that reveal bigger truths about the stories they read. In addition, as they organize their multiple-paragraph argument based on their claim/thesis, it naturally lends itself to higher-level skills such as analysis and synthesis. Finally, writers will learn common and significant writing terminology that is the basis for strong argumentative writing, such as claim/thesis, introduction, and conclusion.

Interdisciplinary Connections:

21st Century Themes and Skills: Communication and Collaboration, Critical Thinking, Information Literacy, Life and Career Skills

CRP2. Apply appropriate academic and technical skills.

CRP4. Communicate clearly and effectively and with reason.

CRP6. Demonstrate creativity and innovation.

CRP7. Employ valid and reliable research strategies.

CRP8. Utilize critical thinking to make sense of problems and persevere in solving them.

CRP11. Use technology to enhance productivity.

NJ Learning Standards (Content and Technology):

CPI#:	Statement:	Learning Targets
NJSLSA.RL.4.2	Determine the key details to identify theme in a story, drama, or poem and summarize the text.
NJSLSA.RL.4.1	Refer to details and examples in a text and make relevant connections when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.
NJSLSA.W.4.1	Write opinion pieces on topics or texts, supporting a point of view with reasons and information.
NJSLSA.W.4.1.a	Introduce a topic or text clearly, state an opinion, and create an organizational structure in which related ideas are grouped to support the writer's purpose.
NJSLSA.W.4.1.b	Provide reasons that are supported by facts and details.
NJSLSA.W.4.1.c	Link opinion and reasons using words and phrases (e.g., for instance, in order to, in addition ).
NJSLSA.W.4.1.d	Provide a concluding statement or section related to the opinion presented
NJSLSA.W.4.5	With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing.
NJSLSA.W.4.6	With some guidance and support from adults, use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing (using the keyboard) as well as to interact and collaborate with others.
NJSLSA.W.4.10	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, metacognition/self-correction and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

NJSLSA.L.4.2.b	Use commas and quotation marks to mark direct speech and quotations from a text.
NJSLSA.L.4.3.a	Choose words and phrases to convey ideas precisely.
NJSLSA.L.4.1.f	Produce complete sentences, recognizing and correcting rhetorically poor fragments and run-ons.
NJSLSA.L.4.5.a	Explain the meaning of simple similes and metaphors (e.g., as pretty as a picture ) in context.
NJSLSA.L.4.5.b	Recognize and explain the meaning of common idioms, adages, and proverbs.
NJSLSA.SL.4.6	Differentiate between contexts that call for formal English (e.g., presenting ideas) and situations where informal discourse is appropriate (e.g., small-group discussion); use formal English when appropriate to task and situation.
8.1.5.A.1	Select and use the appropriate digital tools and resources to accomplish a variety of tasks including solving problems.
8.1.5.A.3	Use a graphic organizer to organize information about problem or issue.
Unit Essential Question(s):
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How does writing about reading help us explore and expand our thinking about characters and theme in literature?</li> <li>• How do writers use the writing process to craft a literary essay?</li> </ul>
Unit Enduring Understandings:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Writers write about their reading in meaningful ways in order to explore and analyze important ideas in the story.</li> <li>• Writers use the writing process in order to meet the purpose and reach the intended audience of the essay.</li> </ul>
Unit Learning Targets/Objectives:
Students will...
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Choose and develop a focus for their literary essay</li> <li>• Utilize graphic organizers to help them plan and organize a structure for their essay</li> <li>• Create a thesis or claim for their introduction paragraph</li> <li>• Write multiple paragraphs to support their reasoning or claim</li> <li>• Craft a closing that summarizes and extends their claim</li> <li>• Edit their essays by connecting their ideas and expand their writing</li> </ul>

Evidence of Learning

Formative Assessments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-conferences with writers</li> <li>-examining student notebook entries and drafts</li> <li>-review of student checklists, graphic organizers, etc.</li> <li>-participation</li> <li>-observations</li> <li>-peer and self assessment</li> </ul>	Summative/Benchmark Assessment(s):	Modifications: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Special Education Students           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Allow errors</li> <li>○ Rephrase questions, directions, and explanations</li> <li>○ Allow extended time to answer questions, and permit drawing, as an explanation</li> <li>○ Accept participation at any level, even one word</li> <li>○ Consult with Case Managers and follow IEP accommodations/modifications</li> </ul> </li> <li>● At-Risk Students           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Provide extended time to complete tasks</li> <li>○ Consult with Guidance Counselors and follow I&amp;RS procedures/action plans</li> <li>○ Consult with classroom teacher(s) for specific behavior interventions</li> <li>○ Provide rewards as necessary</li> </ul> </li> <li>● Gifted and Talented Students           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Provide extension activities</li> <li>○ Build on students' intrinsic motivations</li> <li>○ Consult with parents to accommodate students' interests in completing tasks at their level of engagement</li> </ul> </li> <li>● English Language Learners           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Assign a buddy, same language or English speaking</li> <li>○ Allow errors in speaking</li> <li>○ Rephrase questions, directions, and explanations</li> <li>○ Allow extended time to answer questions</li> <li>○ Accept participation at any level, even one word</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	Lesson Plans
Goals	Suggested Teaching Points	Teaching Ideas and Tips	Possible phrasing:
Writers decide if their essay is	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers revisit the story and begin searching for prominent moments</li> </ul>

going to prove a theme/bigger truth about life or if it will focus on a character's development over time <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Using post-its</li> <li>○ Self-creating a graphic organizer</li> <li>○ Highlighting/underlining</li> <li>● Based on their annotations, writers develop their focus. (character or theme)</li> </ul>	that glaringly reveal lessons and/or character development. To identify the moments, students may annotate the story by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Using post-its</li> <li>○ Self-creating a graphic organizer</li> <li>○ Highlighting/underlining</li> <li>● Based on their annotations, writers develop their focus. (character or theme)</li> </ul> We do this work by asking: "Does this text lend itself to a particular character development... or does the author want me to learn an important lesson?" Videos on theme:  https://www.flocabulary.com/unit/theme/story https://learnzillion.com/lesson_plans/8947-determine-the-theme-of-a-story "One thing that is really important when writing a literary essay is coming up with a strong and clear claim about a theme or a character that reflects the importance of the story. Today I thought we could explore how these few writers develop a thesis that is the most important takeaway of a story." We do this work by asking: "Does this text lend itself to a particular character development... or does the author want me to learn an important lesson?" Videos on theme:  https://www.flocabulary.com/unit/theme/story https://learnzillion.com/lesson_plans/8947-determine-the-theme-of-a-story
	Writers plan their writing through organizing its structure in a format of their choice <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers identify reasons that support the stated claim.</li> <li>● Writers revisit annotations and create their own plan that includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ INTRODUCTION - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ The book's title and author's name</li> <li>■ A brief summary that reflects or centers around their focus</li> <li>■ The thesis/claim</li> </ul> </li> <li>○ BODY - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ Organizes the reasons that support the claim in a manner appropriate to the essay (ie. chronological, order of importance, etc.)</li> </ul> </li> </ul> </li> </ul> Types of self-created graphic organizers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Box and bullets</li> <li>○ Web</li> <li>○ Chart/table</li> <li>○ Tree chart</li> </ul> Create an anchor chart showing the different ways to organize an essay.  https://valenciacollege.edu/wp/cssc/documents/OrganizationalPatternsAcademicWriting.pdf http://grammar.ccc.commnet.edu/grammar/composition/organization.html

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Identifies sub-points for each (ie. evidence - quotes, summaries; examples; etc.)</li> <li>Any other essay points of preference</li> </ul>	http://www.write.com/writing-guides/assignments/organization-preparation/patterns-of-organization-for-essay-assignments/
		<table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th colspan="2">Essay Organization</th> </tr> <tr> <th>Organizational Pattern</th> <th>Purpose</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>Chronological</td> <td>Describes the sequence in which events occur in time.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Order of importance</td> <td>Describes ideas in order of priority or preference.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Classification</td> <td>Divides a topic into parts based on shared characteristics.</td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	Essay Organization		Organizational Pattern	Purpose	Chronological	Describes the sequence in which events occur in time.	Order of importance	Describes ideas in order of priority or preference.	Classification	Divides a topic into parts based on shared characteristics.
Essay Organization
Organizational Pattern	Purpose
Chronological	Describes the sequence in which events occur in time.
Order of importance	Describes ideas in order of priority or preference.
Classification	Divides a topic into parts based on shared characteristics.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Writers use annotations and graphic organizers to develop their essay's introduction.</li> <li>Writers revisit the essay's introduction and determine their focus/lens (purpose).</li> <li>Writers make the purpose of their essay clear by constructing a thesis statement that incorporates the claim and supporting reasons.</li> <li>Based on the focus/lens, writers develop multiple, potential hooks to set the reader up. Using a "Hooks" anchor chart, students will write their name on a post-it and place it next to the hook they are attempting.</li> </ul>	Videos on Claim: https://www.flocabulary.com/unit/thesis/lyric-notes/ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Conduct student/teacher conferences</li> <li>Anchor Chart of Hooks:</li> </ul>
		<table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>Hook/Lead</th> <th>What It Is &amp; Example</th> <th>Post-its</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>Question</td> <td>a rhetorical question - meant to be thought about but not answered outrightly</td> <td> Example: Is forgiveness the key to a strong friendship? </td> </tr> <tr> <td>Quote</td> <td>a statement/phrase that stood out</td> <td></td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	Hook/Lead	What It Is &amp; Example	Post-its	Question	a rhetorical question - meant to be thought about but not answered outrightly	Example: Is forgiveness the key to a strong friendship?	Quote	a statement/phrase that stood out
Hook/Lead	What It Is &amp; Example	Post-its
Question	a rhetorical question - meant to be thought about but not answered outrightly	Example: Is forgiveness the key to a strong friendship?
Quote	a statement/phrase that stood out

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Writers choose which hook fits their focus/lens best and include it at the beginning of their introduction.</li> </ul>	to you in the text or a well-known quote Example: Maya Angelou once said, "People will forget what you said, people will forget what you do, but people will never forget how you made them feel."	"In life,..." mantra powerful statement Example: It appears that people today are buried in technology, such as smartphones and tablets. This distracts them from everyday life.	Figurative Language an idiom, metaphor, simile, or hyperbole Examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Trying to reach a dream is like climbing a mountain.</li> <li>It is said that actions speak louder than words.</li> </ul>
Writers develop multiple paragraphs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Writers develop a foundation for each body paragraph with a topic sentence that identifies a reason and</li> </ul>	SUPPORTING POINTS FOR WRITERS WHEN WRITING THEIR BODY (create anchor charts of the following information or provide on a reference sheet)

thinking of reasons that support their thesis or claim	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>makes a clear connection to the claim/thesis.</li> <li>Writers include a variety of examples from the text that clearly relate to their claim. (ie. quoted, cited, summarized, and/or paraphrased)</li> <li>Writers elaborate on the textual evidence by explaining how the examples relate/connect back to the claim.</li> </ul>	Ways to Begin Your Literary Essay - Compositional Risks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Begin with a powerful quote</li> <li>Lists of items that relate to the story</li> <li>Question</li> <li>Hypothetical situation</li> </ul> Ways to Begin Your Literary Essay's Hook - Possible Phrasing "One might think that....but in this story..."      "Typically in life....but in this text...."      "In life there will be times when...."      "Imagine a life where..."      "Imagine if..." Ways we Can Set Context for our Evidence to Come <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>"Looking back at the part..."</li> <li>"Looking more closely at the scene."</li> <li>"One part that is worth exploring more is when..."</li> <li>"It is important to note....and therefore..."</li> <li>"Near the beginning... Later on in the story..."</li> </ul> Ways to Merge my Thinking On Literary Essay <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Perhaps it could be...</li> <li>That is most likely why...</li> <li>From these text clues it can concluded that...</li> <li>This specific evidence suggests that...</li> <li>This clearly shows...</li> <li>It seems that in this moment...</li> <li>Typically _____, but in this story _____</li> <li>This evidence clearly indicates that...</li> <li>It is clear that the author included this part to help readers realize that...</li> <li>This text clearly shows that...</li> <li>Perhaps the reason for this is...</li> </ul>
---	--	---

Writers craft a closing that summarizes and extends their claim <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Writers restate their thesis/claim and supporting reasons.</li> <li>• Writers summarize/highlight key points related to their claim and focus/lens.</li> <li>• Writers extend the claim by connecting it to a universal idea (the “bigger picture”) so that readers are left with something to consider/ think about.</li> </ul>	★ The reason for this is... SUPPORTING POINTS FOR WRITERS WHEN WRITING THEIR CONCLUSION (*Create anchor charts of the following information or provide in a reference sheet) Ways to End Your Essay <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>★ Begin with an appropriate transition for a conclusion (ie. “In conclusion,” “In summary,” “It is clear that, “All in all,” etc.)</li> <li>★ Restate/reword the thesis in a different way (“Twisted Thesis”).</li> </ul> Example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Thesis in introduction: “It is clear (character name) is both (character trait #1) and (character trait #2).”</li> <li>○ Twisted Thesis in conclusion: “In summary, (character trait #1) and (character trait #2) both describe (character name) perfectly.”</li> <li>★ Always keep your focus/lens in mind and choose/build the conclusion’s ideas around it</li> <li>★ Consider creating a “Wrap Around” to remind readers of your essay’s beginning (Wrap Around - a statement that specifically refers back to the writing’s hook). Example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Hook: “In the struggle of Good vs. Evil, good often wins.</li> <li>○ However, what would happen if Evil won out?”</li> <li>○ Wrap Around: “It appears that when Evil prevails, good people lose out in many ways.”</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	https://www.flocabulary.com/unit/transitions/lyric-notes/ Create a list/chart of transitional words: <table border="1" data-bbox="1281 369 1414 1013"> <tr> <td style="text-align: center;">Possible transitional words or phrases</td><td></td><td></td></tr> <tr> <td style="text-align: center;">Body</td><td style="text-align: center;">Closing</td><td></td></tr> </table>	Possible transitional words or phrases			Body	Closing
Possible transitional words or phrases
Body	Closing
Writers edit essays by connecting their ideas and expand their writing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Writers look throughout their essay to determine where they should use transitional words to “bridge” their ideas between paragraphs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Create a list/chart of transitional words that could be used in the body paragraphs and closing</li> </ul> </li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Writers share their drafts with teachers and/or peers and receive feedback.</li> <li>• Writers develop/enhance their essays by synthesizing the self-observations while color coding and teacher/peer feedback received. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◦ Writers can color code each key element in their essay in a different color to visually see what they are either missing or can expand further on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Hook</li> <li>• Introduction (brief introduction of text)</li> <li>• Claim/thesis</li> <li>• Evidence cited from the text</li> <li>• Elaboration or explanation of the evidence</li> <li>• Closing (summarizing thoughts) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◦ Restate/Reword claim ("Twisted Thesis", "Crooked Claim")</li> <li>◦ Universal Idea (Real World connection)</li> </ul> </li> </ul> </li> </ul> </li> </ul>	Secondly, In the same manner, Similarly, In addition to.. Next, Finally, Lastly, In conclusion.. To conclude... Consequently, Therefore, All in all, In the end, To reiterate, It is clear that...
--	---	--

Content Area: ELA - Writing
Unit Title: Perspective Short Stories (fiction)
Grade Level: 4

Unit 5 Overview

Unit Summary: In this unit, writers will explore the elements and structures of perspective writing through the genre of fiction. It will help them think beyond the story in front of them, expanding their minds and seeing the story through a new lens. As a result, they will learn to “put themselves in someone else’s shoes.” This can help in their understanding of developing empathy for other’s perspectives, even if they are ones unlike theirs - an integral part of primary students’ character and social development.

Interdisciplinary Connections: ELA & Social Studies

21st Century Themes and Skills: Creativity and Innovation, Communication and Collaboration, Life and Career Skills

- CRP2. Apply appropriate academic and technical skills.
- CRP4. Communicate clearly and effectively and with reason.
- CRP6. Demonstrate creativity and innovation.
- CRP11. Use technology to enhance productivity.

NJ Learning Standards	Learning Targets
CPI#:	Statement:
NJSLSA.W.4.3	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using narrative technique, descriptive details, and clear event sequences.
NJSLSA.W.4.3.b	Use dialogue and description to develop experiences and events or show the responses of characters to situations.
NJSLSA.W.4.3.d	Use concrete words and phrases and sensory details to convey experiences and events precisely.
NJSLSA.W.4.4	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development and organization are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
NJSLSA.W.4.5	With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing.
NJSLSA.W.4.6	With some guidance and support from adults, use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing as well as to interact and collaborate with others.
NJSLSA.I.4.1.b	Form and use the progressive (e.g., I was walking; I am walking; I will be walking ) verb tenses.
NJSLSA.I.4.5.c	Demonstrate understanding of words by relating them to their opposites (antonyms) and to words with similar but not identical meanings (synonyms).
8.1.5.A.1	Select and use the appropriate digital tools and resources to accomplish a variety of tasks including solving problems.

8.15.A.3	Use a graphic organizer to organize information about problem or issue
Unit Essential Question(s):		Unit Enduring Understandings:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● How do writers envision a character's perspective that is not significantly present in a story?</li> <li>● How might seeing the story through a different character lens help us to apply this skill to our own lives?</li> </ul>		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers must identify character traits, expressions in pictures, and interaction with other characters within the text, in order to develop the perspective of another character.</li> <li>● Writers will understand the intricacy of human perspective and empathy for others.</li> </ul>
Unit Learning Targets/Objectives: Students will...
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Plan the major elements of their perspective storylines</li> <li>● Create a plan and draft their two different perspectives</li> <li>● Revise their stories by utilizing writing resources (ie. checklist, anchor charts, etc.)</li> <li>● Edit and publish the final drafts of their perspective stories</li> </ul>		Evidence of Learning
Formative Assessments:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-conferences with writers</li> <li>-examining student notebook entries and drafts</li> <li>-review of student checklists, graphic organizers, etc.</li> <li>-participation</li> <li>-observations</li> <li>-peer and self assessment</li> </ul>
Summative/Benchmark Assessment(s):
Modifications:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Special Education Students <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Allow errors</li> </ul> </li> <li>● At-Risk Students <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Provide extended time to complete tasks</li> </ul> </li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Rephrase questions, directions, and explanations</li> <li>○ Allow extended time to answer questions, and permit drawing, as an explanation</li> <li>○ Accept participation at any level, even one word</li> <li>○ Consult with Case Managers and follow IEP accommodations/modifications</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Consult with Guidance Counselors and follow I&amp;RS procedures/action plans</li> <li>○ Consult with classroom teacher(s) for specific behavior interventions</li> <li>○ Provide rewards as necessary</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● English Language Learners <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Assign a buddy, same language or English speaking</li> <li>○ Allow errors in speaking</li> <li>○ Rephrase questions, directions, and explanations</li> <li>○ Allow extended time to answer questions</li> <li>○ Accept participation at any level, even one word</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Gifted and Talented Students <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Provide extension activities</li> <li>○ Build on students' intrinsic motivations</li> <li>○ Consult with parents to accommodate students' interests in completing tasks at their level of engagement</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
Goals	Suggested Teaching Points	Lesson Plans Teaching Ideas and Tips Immersion Week: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Students are immersed in the genre by looking at a series of short stories and discussing how authors share the perspective of different characters.</li> <li>- Why would it be interesting to tell a story through different perspectives? What does it bring the reader?</li> <li>- Create an anchor chart titled: "Different Ways Authors Share Perspectives"</li> </ul> ■ Identify character traits, expressions in pictures, and ways of interaction with other characters within the text.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ How would the story be different if it was told in a different point of view?           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ Discuss the possible views of one character and compare it to the views of another</li> <li>■ Discuss how story elements are altered based on the different perspective (ie. dialogue, thoughts, actions, mood, theme or moral)</li> <li>● Writers plan multiple perspectives from a given story.</li> <li>● Writers look closely at possible perspectives and circle or star one that speaks to them. “We choose a story that can be meaningful and one we want to share with others and we begin writing our drafts in our notebooks.”</li> <li>● Writers have different ways in developing who the characters are as people:               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Through action, thought, dialogue, and feelings writers can develop their characters intentionally</li> <li>○ Adapt moments that allow the reader to understand the</li> </ul> </li> </ul> </li> </ul>
	This chart can be created over several days and across more than one picture book. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Refer back to mentor texts when teaching or modeling these developing strategies.</li> <li>● Some possible mentor texts include:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ The Day the Crayons Quit by Drew Daywalt</li> <li>○ Hey Little Ant by Phillip M. Hoose</li> <li>○ First Day Jitters by Julie Danneberg</li> <li>● Recommended texts for perspective rewrites:               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ any fairytale</li> <li>○ Chrysanthemum by Kevin Henkes</li> <li>○ Ish by Peter Reynolds</li> <li>○ I'm Here by Peter Reynolds</li> <li>○ Every Little Thing by Cynthia Rylant (specifically the short story “Papa’s Parrot”)</li> <li>○ “A True Leprechaun Tale”</li> <li>○ http://www.unicornsgarden.com/blklep4.htm</li> </ul> </li> </ul> </li> </ul>

	emotions/feelings of the characters <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Writers use major moments of the plot, but alter how the character thinks, reacts, and feels about the scenario:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◦ Change pronouns accurately to reflect the new perspective</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	Process: Choosing and Making a Plan <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use your own writing from previous years to model these strategies for students or have students examples to show and display.</li> <li>• While preparing for their drafts, encourage students to choose a character perspective with a strong story to tell.</li> </ul>
Writers choose and develop a plan for drafting two different perspectives that address the development of a problem	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Writers collect entries and create multiple drafts of their stories:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◦ Reread entries and decide on one perspective story that they plan on publishing digitally</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	Process: Revision <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Consider accessing sources, such as books, short videos, and interviews, where well-known authors discuss their own personal experiences with the writing process.</li> </ul>
Writers revisit and revise their stories by adding descriptions that will help readers comprehend, visualize, and connect/ empathize with the characters	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Writers revise (re-vision) a significant event or moment in their story to enhance the character's perspective.</li> <li>• Writers make entries stronger by using available resources.           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◦ Teacher conference, writing partnerships, writing checklists, anchor charts, reference sheets:</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	Process: Revision <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Consider accessing sources, such as books, short videos, and interviews, where well-known authors discuss their own personal experiences with the writing process.</li> </ul>

	verbs, adjectives, and adverbs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Dialogue formatting and tag variation</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Tone of voice to convey specific moods and characters' perspectives</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Theme/Moral</li> </ul>
Writers edit/publish their story and choose their own diverse formats to share it	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Writers edit their stories: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◦ Spelling, Grammar, Punctuation</li> <li>◦ Word Choice</li> <li>◦ Writers type the perspective they have chosen to publish.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	Process: Editing and Publishing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use a "Text-to-Speech" extension to help students listen to their stories and make corrections</li> <li>• Utilize tools available in digital formats, such as spell check or grammar check</li> </ul>
Unit 6 Overview
Content Area: ELA – Writing
Unit Title: Advertisements (Persuasive Writing)
Grade Level: 4
Unit Summary: In this unit, writers will explore the elements and structures of persuasive/opinion writing. The unit activities are designed to have writers generate a claim and a technique to successfully advertise a product. Writers will analyze persuasive techniques to have their claim and vision come to life. In addition, this unit will support the writer's motivation, for not only are the advertisement products self-chosen, but advertisements are also relevant to the writers' everyday lives. Finally, persuasive writing in this form will also help writers to understand the implications of real world advertisements and the impact they have on their audience.
Interdisciplinary Connections: ELA, Art, & Science
21st Century Themes and Skills: Collaboration & Communication, Life and Career Skills, Information Literacy, Media Literacy, Creativity and Innovation
CRP2. Apply appropriate academic and technical skills.
CRP4. Communicate clearly and effectively and with reason.

NJ Learning Standards		Learning Targets
CPI#:	Statement:
NJSLSA.RI.4.7	Interpret factual information presented graphically or visually (e.g., in charts, graphs, diagrams, time lines, animations, or interactive elements on Web pages) and explain how the information contributes to understanding the text in which they appear.
NJSLSA.RI.4.8	Explain how an author uses reasons and evidence to support particular points in a text.
NJSLSA.W.4.1	Write opinion pieces on topics or texts, supporting a point of view with reasons and information.
NJSLSA.W.4.1.A	Introduce a topic or text clearly, state an opinion, and create an organizational structure in which related ideas are grouped to support the writer's purpose.
NJSLSA.W.4.1.B	Provide reasons that are supported by facts from texts and/or other sources.
NJSLSA.W.4.1.C	Link opinion and reasons using words and phrases (e.g., for instance, in order to, in addition).
NJSLSA.W.4.5	With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing.
NJSLSA.W.4.6	With some guidance and support from adults, use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing (using the keyboard) as well as to interact and collaborate with others.
NJSLSA.W.4.8	Recall relevant information from experiences or gather information from print and digital sources; take notes and categorize information, and provide a list of sources.
NJSLSA.W.4.9	Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.
NJSLSA.W.4.10	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, metacognition/self-correction and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
NJSLSA.L.4.3.C	Differentiate between contexts that call for formal English (e.g., presenting ideas) and situations where informal discourse is appropriate (e.g., small-group discussion).
NJSLSA.L.4.3.A	Choose words and phrases to convey ideas precisely.
NJSLSA.SL.4.3	Identify the reasons and evidence a speaker provides to support particular points

NJSLSA.SL.4.4	Report on a topic or text, tell a story, or recount an experience in an organized manner, using appropriate facts and relevant, descriptive details to support main ideas or themes; speak clearly at an understandable pace.
NJSLSA.SL.4.5	Add audio recordings and visual displays to presentations when appropriate to enhance the development of main ideas or themes.
8.15.D.1	Understand the need for and use of copyrights
8.25.C.3	Research how design modifications have lead to new products.
Unit Essential Question(s):
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How do writers successfully construct attention-getting advertisements?</li> <li>• How do we respond critically to the content and form of advertisements?</li> </ul>
Unit Enduring Understandings:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Writers use aesthetic elements and persuasive techniques to capture, engage, and influence their audience.</li> <li>• Writers use knowledge of the aesthetic and persuasive techniques to understand the lens of the writer and respond in an informed way.</li> </ul>
Unit Learning Targets/Objectives:
SWBAT:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Identify the effective components of advertisements and how they are presented</li> <li>• Generate product ideas and conduct research to determine any previous existence</li> <li>• Formulate a claim and evidence that supports their product</li> <li>• Plan a technique that will be utilized to create a successful advertisement that supports their claim</li> <li>• Draft the layout of their advertisement</li> <li>• Revise by enhancing advertisement components based on the message they are trying to convey</li> <li>• Publish or present advertisements through a medium of choice</li> </ul>
Evidence of Learning

Formative Assessments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-conferences with writers</li> <li>-examining student notebook entries and drafts</li> <li>-review of student checklists, graphic organizers, etc.</li> <li>-participation</li> <li>-observations</li> <li>-peer and self assessment</li> </ul> Summative/Benchmark Assessment(s):	Modifications: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Special Education Students <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Allow errors</li> <li>○ Rephrase questions, directions, and explanations</li> <li>○ Allow extended time to answer questions, and permit drawing, as an explanation</li> <li>○ Accept participation at any level, even one word</li> <li>○ Consult with Case Managers and follow IEP accommodations/modifications</li> </ul> </li> <li>● At-Risk Students <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Provide extended time to complete tasks</li> <li>○ Consult with Guidance Counselors and follow I&amp;RS procedures/action plans</li> <li>○ Consult with classroom teacher(s) for specific behavior interventions</li> <li>○ Provide rewards as necessary</li> </ul> </li> <li>● English Language Learners <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Assign a buddy, same language or English speaking</li> <li>○ Allow errors in speaking</li> <li>○ Rephrase questions, directions, and explanations</li> <li>○ Allow extended time to answer questions</li> <li>○ Accept participation at any level, even one word</li> </ul> </li> <li>● Gifted and Talented Students <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Provide extension activities</li> <li>○ Build on students' intrinsic motivations</li> <li>○ Consult with parents to accommodate students' interests in completing tasks at their level of engagement</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
Goals	Suggested Teaching Points
Lesson Plans	Teaching Ideas and Tips

Identify key components of advertisements and the ways in which they are presented	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers look closely at the content and language of mentor texts which make the pieces persuasive.</li> <li>● Writers look closely at the written and aesthetic elements of various persuasive advertisements, discuss those elements, and identify the persuasive techniques, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ repetition</li> <li>○ slogan</li> <li>○ celebrity endorsement</li> <li>○ bandwagon appeal</li> <li>○ emotional appeal</li> <li>○ visual appeal</li> <li>○ association</li> <li>○ promotion</li> <li>○ claims</li> </ul> </li> <li>● Writers connect observations of advertisements with specific advertisement techniques.</li> <li>● Writers synthesize observations, establishing connections between all texts and drawing conclusions about persuasive pieces.</li> </ul>	Immersion Week:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Students are immersed in the genre by looking at a series of short stories and appropriate advertisements. Then they can discuss how authors share their personal opinions.</li> <li>- What is persuasion?</li> <li>- Create an anchor chart titled: "Powerful Persuasive Language" to show how word choice can make a significant difference.</li> </ul>
			<table border="1" data-bbox="518 143 714 1115"> <thead> <tr> <th colspan="2" data-bbox="518 143 714 882">Powerful Persuasive Language</th> </tr> <tr> <th data-bbox="518 882 714 1115">Words to Strengthen Views</th> <th data-bbox="714 882 1382 1115">Words to Avoid</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td data-bbox="518 1115 714 1788"></td> <td data-bbox="714 1115 1382 1788"></td> </tr> </tbody> </table> This chart can be created over several days and across more than one picture book. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Refer back to mentor texts when teaching or modeling these developing strategies. Some possible mentor texts include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ I Wanna Iguana by Karen Kaufman Orloff</li> <li>○ One Grain of Rice by Demi and Demi</li> <li>○ Somewhere Today by Bert Kitcher (persuasive lead)</li> <li>○ I Miss Franklin P. Shuckles by Ulana Snihura</li> <li>○ I Know It's Autumn by Eileen Spinelli</li> <li>○ The Seashore Book by Charlotte Zolotow</li> <li>○ Wildfires by Seymour Simon</li> <li>○ So You Want to be President by Judith St. George</li> <li>○ The Salamander Room by Anne Mazer</li> </ul> </li> <li>● Additional Resources:</li> </ul>	Powerful Persuasive Language		Words to Strengthen Views	Words to Avoid Powerful Persuasive Language
Words to Strengthen Views	Words to Avoid

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ https://www.scholastic.com/teachers/lesson-plans/teaching-content/pictures-and-slogans-persuade-audience/</li> <li>○ http://www.readwritethink.org/classroom-resources/lesson-plans/persuasive-techniques-advertising-1166.html?ta=be4</li> <li>○ https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=azttKmTOrVc</li> <li>○ http://www.scholastic.com/admongo/</li> <li>○ http://www.scholastic.com/adlibrary.htm</li> <li>○ http://www.scholastic.com/admongo/familyinfo.htm</li> </ul>
Generate ideas of subjects and formats for advertisements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers choose at least 2-3 generic products they might be interested in advertising and ideas for modifying and transforming them in a unique way. (For example: A remote that can shrink backpacks or a shoe spray that can turn your old shoes back to its original new state.)</li> <li>● Writers research their generic products and products associated with them.</li> <li>● Writers use their research to build, enhance, and alter their products more, ensuring their uniqueness. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Was a patent already created for your product?</li> </ul> </li> <li>● Writers choose the products they are invested in advertising.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Model how to research a generic product in order to generate unique ideas <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Create a list of unique ideas that could be possible</li> <li>● Using the website provided, use keywords to research previously created patents. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ http://appft.uspto.gov/netacntnl/PTO/search-bool.html</li> </ul> </li> </ul> </li> </ul>
Formulate a claim and evidence that supports their “product”	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers generate some claims for their products and evaluate their effectiveness through independent reflection and</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Refer back to the chart (Powerful Persuasive Words) that was created during the immersion week.</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>teacher/peer support.</li> <li>Writers choose a solid claim to use as the foundation for their persuasive advertisement.</li> </ul>
Plan a technique that will be utilized to create a successful advertisement that supports their claim	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Writers choose and apply some persuasive advertising techniques that will help them make their claim and vision come to life.             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Persuasive techniques, such as:                     <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>repetition</li> <li>slogan</li> <li>celebrity</li> <li>endorsement</li> <li>bandwagon appeal</li> <li>emotional appeal</li> <li>association</li> <li>promotion</li> <li>■ promotion</li> </ul> </li> <li>Writers evaluate the effectiveness/impactfulness of the persuasive techniques chosen through both independent reflection and teacher/peer support.</li> <li>Writers choose a solid technique to use for their persuasive advertisement.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Refer back to the chart (Powerful Persuasive Words) that was created during the immersion week.</li> </ul>
Draft the layout of the advertisement, considering their audience and visual appeal/goal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Writers create and evaluate multiple drafts of their advertisements taking into account the effect of each visual tactic:             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Color</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Refer back to the chart (Powerful Persuasive Words) that was created during the immersion week.</li> <li>Display examples to show the impact of these Visual Tactics             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Some Visual Examples can be found on this site                     <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>https://www.nickkolenda.com/advertising-psychology/</li> </ul> </li> </ul> </li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Fonts</li> <li>○ Size of Brand Name</li> <li>○ Position of Brand Name</li> <li>○ Position of Images and Graphics</li> <li>○ Enlarge Words that convey emotions</li> <li>○ Framing of Words or Images</li> <li>○ Repetition of Logo or Brand Name</li> <li>○ Use of Powerful Assertive Words</li> <li>○ Amount of text</li> <li>● Writers share their drafts with teachers and/or peers and receive feedback on the effectiveness of each.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Refer back to the chart (Powerful Persuasive Words) that was created during the immersion week.</li> <li>● Have students continue to compare their advertisements to successful "real-world" advertisements or their peer's advertisements to see if they can enhance their work any further.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Publishing Ideas:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Advertisements written on paper</li> <li>○ Google Drawing</li> <li>○ Microsoft Publishing (Templates)</li> </ul> </li> <li>○ Differentiate: Give students the choice to create a video commercial to go along with their product. This can be an additional/optional assignment, which is not required but encouraged. Video devices, creating/editing programs, and other suggestions for students for their commercials...</li> </ul>
Revise by enhancing advertisement components based on the message they are trying to convey	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers choose their most impactful draft and develop/enhance it by synthesizing the self-observations and teacher/peer feedback received.</li> </ul>
Publish or present advertisements through a median of choice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Writers choose a way of publishing their advertisements.</li> <li>● Writers create/build a model of their product to go with their published advertisements.</li> <li>● Writers share their advertisements and models with the class as if they are trying to get individuals to sponsor/fund their product.</li> </ul>

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>■ Smart phones</li><li>■ Tablets</li><li>■ Laptop Webcams</li><li>■ Embedding their commercials into a PowerPoint or Google Presentation</li><li>■ Online Apps/ Software</li></ul>